WATERFRONT CITY HOSTS "LE VILLAGE PRÉFÉRÉ DES LIBANAIS" BY L'ORIENT LE JOUR

As Lebanon's leading mixed-use destination, Waterfront City hosted the third edition of L'Orient Le Jour's much-anticipated annual event in support of rural tourism: "Le Village Préféré des Libanais".

More than 900 visitors gathered at the heart of the community, The Marina Promenade, being the country's biggest F&B destination, to discover unique features of this year's 10 participating villages. Each village had a dedicated area to introduce guests to their specialties and favoured cuisines prepared by Souk el Tayeb and Tawlet, Lebanon's authentic farmers market concepts, various entertainment shows by local talents took place throughout the evening, as well as dedicated activities for kids.
